"Knowing that intercessory mightiest weapon and supplicants Christians today, I pleading everywhere to pray... Let there be prayer at sun-up, noon day, at sun-down, at midnight, all through the day. Let us all pray for our children, our youth, our aged, our pastors, our homes. Let us pray for our churches. Let us pray for ourselves, that we may not lose the word 'concern' out of our Christian vocabulary. Let us pray for our nation. Let us pray for those who have never known Jesus Christ and redeeming love, for moral forces everywhere, for our national leaders. Let prayer be our passion. Let prayer be our practice."

-Robert E. Lee (1807-1870), Commander in Chief of the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia
